

Anniversary

Today was the day that we both said "I Do"
And promised our Love always for life
And every day since I ever more Love You
Since we began as Husband and Wife!

Though years have gone by, for better or worse
The Vows that we made years ago
We repeat each day Our Hearts not just verse
Of how much we Love each other so!

And our future looks as bright as on our Wedding Night
For our love is Evergreen and New
And the Stars in our Eyes are still shining as bright
Happy Anniversary My Love, I Love You!
